

The Little Cornish Cleaning Company really are cleaning up

In the throw away society in which we seem to live, it is reassuring to know that there is a company who specialises in the revitalization of our carpets and upholstery, using the very best equipment and solutions available.

The Little Cornish Cleaning Company who are well known in the local area are dedicated to offering a complete service to their customers. The business was established in 2010 by Mark and Olivia Fellows with the sole objective of offering a first class service at a realistic and affordable price.

They appreciate our carpets in particular, take a great deal of punishment every day. This means that dirt builds up, much of which is buried deep within the pile.

As well as damaging the pile and reducing the life of our carpets, the dirt could also be harbouring harmful mites and bacteria which can cause allergic reactions in some people.

The company use the very latest in cleaning techniques and equipment which ensures that they achieve the best possible results and are able to lift grease, dirt and grit thoroughly.

This process will also remove those unwelcome odours. Sufferers of bronchial or asthmatic conditions will be relieved to know that they will suffer no side effects from the chemicals used, plus they are completely safe for children and pets.

The Little Cornish Cleaning Company have an impressive portfolio of clients across the area and their web site has recommendations from a host of satisfied customers.

Their services include end of tenancy cleans, blitz cleans, holiday change overs, office cleaning and of course domestic cleaning.

As they are fully insured and they will guarantee against shrinkage or stretching. You will also find that your carpets and upholstery will be dry and ready for use in a comparatively short time.

They also promise their customers the following;

- They will always visit you when they say they are going to visit
- They will always be smart in their appearance
- They will always be polite and courteous
- They will always listen to and discuss your expectations
- They will never leave until you are 100% satisfied with their work

The Little Cornish Cleaning Company always try to do the best possible job they can for their customers. Why not give them a call and let them revitalise your carpets and upholstery.
