

Newquay's Premier Holiday Lettings Agency

Which Holiday Survey found during a recent survey that Newquay is "one of the nations favourite seaside towns," offering so much to a wide range of people from all walks of life.

The resort is open all year and offers a fabulous array of attractions as well as renowned events and activities, both water based and on dry land.

Newquay Holiday Lettings give you the opportunity to take advantage of this wonderful town and arrange winter lets or short term lettings, to help fill those quieter times and often work in conjunction with David Ball Agencies or Lettings who are probably Newquay's premier lettings agency.

They can assist with furnishing, design and even modernisation often working off plan with developers ensuring early advertising ahead of other agencies!

The business is the only holiday letting agent based on the high street and boasts over twenty five years of experience in the tourism and property industry.

Director Louise Cooke maintains they have remained successful because they only concentrate on Newquay and the surrounding areas which means they have built up a wealth of knowledge and experience.

Such is their reputation, they are proud to say that over 50% of their bookings are return guests and word of mouth bookings.

Quite clearly, they should be the first point of call for anyone looking to rent a holiday let in the area irrespective of the length of the term required. Their web site also has a 24 hour online booking system.

Newquay Holiday Lettings are also selective in the type of properties they market and making the prices realistic. Louise believes it makes far more sense to have properties with quality bookings in place rather than have empty weeks because the property is priced too highly.

For home owners looking to market their home as a holiday let, the business have a database of thousands of previous guests, so marketing your property is simple and effective.

They can market your property or offer a wide range of packages right up to full management, allowing you to have as much or as little involvement as you choose. The best news is that there are no set up fees at the beginning, in the middle or at the end.

Newquay Holiday Lettings are the perfect company for anyone looking to rent a property or let a property. Give them a call and they will look after you.
